REEVES ■■■ NEYLAN
chartered accountants business advisers

Following May's General Election there is credible evidence that Gordon Brown plans to significantly tighten the "tax screw" on the business community. Within a lively 15 minute presentation, Clive Relf (Enterprise Unit Advisory Board Member and Partner at Reeves & Neylan) will outline three essential steps you, as a start-up business founder, must now take to protect yourselves from the risk of Mr Brown pocketing an "unfair share" of your business income.
